SEASON TICKETS ARE GOING FAST

ALMOST 100 HAVE ALREADY BEEN SOLD IN A FEW HOURS TIME

TO SELL 100 MORE

Committees Will Call on Fans Today and Try To Dispose of Total of 200 Tickets

The two hundred season tickets, the sale of which will guarantee league baseball throughout the remainder of the season for the Anderson fans, were placed on sale with a rush at 6 p. m. last night. And while the canvassers, representing the Greater Anderson spirit, got a late start, they did some real business, and by 10 o'clock last night reported that 87 of the 200 tickets had been sold.

Capt. R. H. Ramer led off with a solid purchase of ten tickets. Everybody that was seen accepted tickets and they all bought. The remainder, or 113 tickets will be placed on sale in the city today. They should be sold by this afternoon and the board of directors placed in a position to guarantee league ball for Anderson during the remainder of the season.

After reading the above the bilious compositor said he would like to add a few lines if the "office" would shut its eyes and let his "dope" get by without the blue pencil. Here is what he wrote:

"Quit hollering 'Anderson Is My Town,' and quit the front pew in your church if you cannot buy at least one season ticket. Who are you anyhow that you haven't got sufficient civic pride to stand by the splendid bunch of youngsters who are winning a pennant for Anderson? Did you say 'I can't afford it'? If so, quit your kid-ding. Are you what is called 'A Big Business Man,' if so, prove it and buy a ticket. You bought Chautauqua tickets and you got your money's worth and you know it. Now really, don't you will if you buy league ball season tickets. Do it. Today is the time. Tomorrow will be too late. Anyhow, Anderson can't do business on Sunday.

"Anderson is going to win the pennant. Who said so? Why bless you, the 200 fans who are going to purchase those first 200 tickets. After they are gone today, as they will be, then there will be no more season tickets at any price. Why should there be? You didn't get one of the first ones.

"Anderson will have league ball for the balance of the season and on Labor Day hang up the pennant as the winner of the Piedmont league.

"Get busy."

SPLIT A DOUBLE-HEADER

Team Plays Here Monday.

BUNTS

Well, an even break is better than losing both.

We had decided that two out of three would be enough from Greenville so we will "mop up" this afternoon.

And they had 500 people to see the game in Greenville yesterday. Which shows that the Anderson team can draw a crowd when it is away from home and it does seem that it might also draw here.

The schedule calls for Greenville to come to Anderson next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday but the fans here are sick and tired of the two teams playing each other forever. Therefore, President Whaley of the Anderson club will request that Spartanburg be sent here for three games.

If we can trim Spartanburg two out of three it will be a settled fact as to where the rag is going.

How many season tickets have you bought?

How would it do to play a double header at the park Sunday afternoon? Anderson fans are too busy during the week to go to the game. (Label. This is a joke.)

Come on with a little of that civic pride and help stir up a crowd for Monday.

If Spartanburg comes here Monday there will be the biggest crowd out for the opening game yet seen at Buena Vista.

What it takes to get 400 people out Monday, we happen to have it.

An effort will be made to get Mr. Vaughn back to Anderson to umpire for the series here. He is the best umpire the league has worked yet.

Gaffney says that she is "mighty well pleased" over getting Wellis and McColl. Both those fellows are good ball players and they are playing with a good team.

"Bad Eye" Guthrie will look worse after he leaves Anderson with that Spartanburg bunch than he does now.

Well, all together now, a little pep. Let's call every one of those season tickets today.

If we can handle the other 100 tickets today it will mean that the team's financial worries and troubles are ended.

How about buying a season ticket for some friend? Look what Captain Ramer did.

Get ready right now to go out and root for the home club Monday afternoon.

The Anderson team is leading the league, playing winning ball of the top-notch variety.

We are going to have a crowd Monday and that's no joke. Stay at home if you want to and see who cares.

All indications are that today's game will come our way.

Of course it would not do to let Greenville get down in the mouth. Therefore the Anderson fellows handed them one on a platter yesterday.

A number of fans are planning to go to Greenville this afternoon to see the last game of the series.

Read on this page the offer to the kiddies and let your boy go to the game Monday afternoon.

Remember, every boy under 12 years of age is admitted free Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

And all between 12 and 15 will be admitted at a special rate of 10 cents.

And ladies are admitted free all the time.

Ready to help get a crowd out Monday?

Ready to buy a season ticket?

Ready to lend a hand and help Anderson have a winning team?

KIDS FREE.

It was decided last night at a meeting of the baseball directors for the three games next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, every boy and girl under 12 years of age, will be admitted to the park free. All between the ages of 12 and 15 will be admitted for 10 cents. This is an experiment on the part of the local organization and it certainly cannot prove to be a success from a financial standpoint but the management of the Anderson club is not trying to make any money. The sole idea is to provide the people with good, wholesome amusement and to give the city some interesting. Let the kiddies come out Monday.

A BATTLE ROYAL

The Opposing Twirlers Were Evenly Matched, Each Getting Seven Strike Outs

Gaffney, July 10.—Spartanburg came back strong after the crushing defeat of yesterday by taking this afternoon's game by a score of 4 to 2. The game ranked among the best yet seen on the local diamond. The pitchers were about evenly matched each striking out 7 and walking 1, although Dagerhardt made a wild throw in the ninth that allowed the Spartans to score their fourth run. The visitors pulled off two double plays while "Legs" Martin took in a long fly to center in the seventh on a hard chance. J. Moore used his stick well, securing one double and two singles from four trips to the plate. Welch secured two doubles and made two of the runs for the visitors.

Greenville, July 10.—Anderson and Greenville split a doubleheader here this afternoon, the visitors capturing the first by a 7 to 5 count while the locals walked away with the second to the tune of 7 to 0. Woods, the Fountain Inn lad, twirled another one hit game in the final struggle. The first game was a pitchers battle between Summey and Cheek with the odds slightly in favor of the former. The same teams play here tomorrow afternoon.
